

CELEBRATING 100 YEARS OF THE TEN MILE RIVER SCOUT RESERVATION JAMES E. WEST FELLOWSHIP AWARD

FOR CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE PERMANENT ENDOWMENT TO FUND SCOUTING AT TMR IN PERPETUITY

JAMES E. WEST was the first Chief Executive Officer of the Boy Scouts of America. Not only was he a visionary, he was also a New Yorker and critical to TMR's success. In his 30 years of service, he shaped the BSA into the leading youth movement in the United States, now Scouting America.

The James E. West Fellowship Award recognizes individuals, foundations and corporations that make a gift of $1,000 to the Greater New York Councils, Scouting America Endowment Fund. The gift can be made by you in your name or in memory of in honor of a Scouter. Gifts can be made by check, installments via credit card or stock transfer.

The principal of your gift will be retained in perpetuity and the annual income will be used to benefit Ten Mile River Scout Reservation.
