

Greetings, Scouters!

Welcome to the Camp Director Section of National Camp School at Ten Mile River Scout Camps! We're super excited that you've joined us for this fantastic adventure, and we look forward to seeing you on Saturday, June 1.

First, we hope you're energized and ready to dive into this experience headfirst. Get ready to meet some incredible people, learn new skills, and embark on a week full of unforgettable memories.

Being a camp director is no easy task, but trust us, it will be worth it. You're about to become part of a community that values teamwork, leadership, and, most importantly, fun!

Throughout your time at National Camp School, you'll have the opportunity to expand your knowledge and gain valuable tools to run your camp program effectively. We've meticulously planned an exciting lineup of workshops, activities, and discussions. Rest assured, you'll be challenged, inspired, and supported every step of the way.

Did we mention the breathtaking beauty of Ten Mile River Scout Camps? As you soak in the fresh air, towering trees, and serene river view, let it fuel your passion for creating an unforgettable summer experience for every camper who walks through your camp's gates.

As camp directors, you hold a unique and vital role in shaping the lives of young campers. Your dedication and enthusiasm are deeply appreciated. Your hard work is not only noticed but also celebrated. We are here to provide all the support, guidance, and resources you need to succeed in this noble endeavor.

Please take the time to visit the National Camping School at TMR website and review the tiles. This will help you prepare for the week ahead. Please do not hesitate to reach out if you have any questions before you arrive at Ten Mile River Scout Camps.

So, buckle up, camp directors! It will be an incredible journey filled with learning, laughter, and lifelong friendships. Get ready to positively impact the lives of countless Scouts and seize every opportunity to grow as leaders. Once again, welcome to the Camp Director Section of National Camp School at Ten Mile River Scout Camps. Let's make this summer the best one yet!

Gratefully,

Daniel Friel

Camp Directors Section Director
National Camping School

dfriel@hendricken.com